WXDU

88.7 & 90.7 FM

a Duke University Union committee

Fall 1993

Request Line: 684-8870

For the past decade, WXDU has been serving the Duke University and Triangle communities with the most aggressively progressive programming on the radio dial. Our top priority is to expose our listeners to the best in fresh, challenging new music. With over 70 volunteer DJ's from the University and surrounding area, WXDU features an incredibly diverse mix of shows with something for everyone.

SPECIALTY SHOWS

Every weekday from 5-8PM and Sundays from 12-3PM, WXDU cools off with JAZZ shows from traditional to cutting-edge. From 8-10PM on Fridays, groove your way into the weekend with the power beat of DJ M.A.D.D.'s HIP-HOP show. Take a Saturday afternoon trip to the Caribbean and beyond with the infectious rhythm of Sharon St. Clair's INTERNATIONAL AND REGGAE show from 12-3PM. After jammin' with Sharon, hop on the BLUES TRAIN from 3-6PM as our man Cornell Johnson takes you back to the heart of it all for some front porch pickin'. Then trade your guitar in for a banjo and join Tonya Shackner for a down-home COUNTRY AND BLUEGRASS fest from 10AM to noon on Sundays. If you're still yearning for that soulful sound after Tonya's show, stick around for Dave Tilley's BULL CITY COSMIC HOEDOWN from 6-9PM and feast your ears on a spicy gumbo of roots music, including blues, folk, bluegrass, Cajun, Celtic, African and more. Also on Sundays, scan the musical spectrum with the finest female artists from around the globe during Kirsten's 3-6PM WOMEN IN MUSIC show.

During the week, count down the Top Ten new albums of the week with Bryce Burkhardt on the RADIO NOUVEAU show from 8-11PM on Tuesdays--and listen for your chance to win your favorite disc from the countdown. Listen and learn about hot Triangle bands with Matt Walter's LOCAL MUSIC show at the same time on Tuesdays.

NEWS AND SPORTS

Tune in weekdays at 10AM, noon, 2PM, and 5PM and let WXDU News be your antenna to the world. Following the news, stay tuned for the latest sports updates. True Blue listeners who can't make it to Wally Wade can catch our coverage of home football games.

WXDU PRESENTS LIVE MUSIC

Want to see in person the bands you've been hearing over the air? WXDU regularly sponsors shows at the Coffeehouse on East Campus featuring both local and national acts. Several exciting events are slated for the rest of the semester:

Fri., Oct. 30: ROGER MANNING
Sat., Oct.31: TIGER TRAP, SMALL FACTORY, and special Halloween surprise guest
Sun., Nov. 7: RODAN with SLUG and SPATULA
Tues., Nov. 16: MEKONS with SEAM
Fri., Nov. 19: GRIFTERS

We also give away tickets to these and other concerts right up until showtime. If you're in the mood for some more musical goodies, you have ample chances to snag paraphernalia such as CD's, tapes, T-shirts, and posters. For information about live shows happening elsewhere in the Triangle, listen for our Concert Calendar daily at 12:30, 4:30, and 8:30PM.
